Reference Guide to Online AA Resources for Groups and Beginners

Virtual Literature Rack

At a meeting we can usually find pamphlets that are free and we can recommend some pieces to a newcomer that will help them to learn a little more about AA. The links below will take you to the pamphlets on the Alcoholics Anonymous website.

This Is A.A. pamphlet link

Introductory pamphlet describing the kind of people A.A.s are and what A.A.s have learned about alcoholism. For anyone who thinks he or she may have a problem with alcohol.

Is A.A. for Me? pamphlet link

Based on the 12 questions in "Is A.A. for You?," this 32-page pamphlet is an illustrated, easy-to-read version.

A Newcomer Asks pamphlet link Gives straightforward, brief answers on 15 points that once puzzled many of us.

Frequently Asked Questions About A.A. pamphlet link

Is A.A. for You? pamphlet link

Symptoms of alcoholism are summed up in 12 questions most A.A.s had to answer to identify themselves as alcoholics.

Do You Think You're Different?

Speaks to newcomers who may wonder how A.A. can work for someone "different"—black or Jewish, teenager or nearing 80, plus nine other people who tell how the A.A. program has worked for them.

Questions and Answers on Sponsorship pamphlet link

Uses shared A.A. experience to answer 34 questions likely to be asked by persons seeking sponsors, persons wanting to be sponsors, and groups planning sponsorship activity.

Problems Other Than Alcohol pamphlet link

Bill's thoughts on the status of drug addicts within A.A. are as timely as when they appeared in a 1958 Grapevine.

There is a complete list of all pamphlets on the website. For more information click here and scroll down to the Pamphlets/Flyers section.

Online Videos and Audios

Sound and visual media help to carry the message of recovery of Alcoholics Anonymous and to inform the public and professionals about A.A. Public Service Announcements (PSAs) are available in both video and audio formats (for television and radio broadcast), as well as other materials specifically for young people and for professionals working with alcoholics.
